

Financial Assistance Request Girl Membership Dues/Uniforms/Books

form #116b • 01/12 • page 1 of 1

General guidelines

1. Requests are granted based on the financial need of the family.
2. No girl will be denied membership in Girl Scouting due to an inability to pay the national membership dues.
3. Uniform assistance (includes one uniform component [tunic, vest or sash] troop numbers, flag patch and council ID set) may be received one time per program/grade level.
4. Book assistance (up to 50% of the price of one grade level book) may be received one time per year. Girls granted book assistance will receive a certificate to exchange in any Girl Scouts OSW store for the selected grade level book.
5. Financial assistance requests will be processed on a first come, first served basis.
6. Financial assistance is only available to girls who are registered (or registering to become) members of Girl Scouts OSW.
7. Financial assistance is limited to available funds. Preference will be given to girl members in awarding assistance. Adults requesting financial assistance are asked to contact their local service center.
8. All information provided will be held in the strictest confidence.
