February 2026

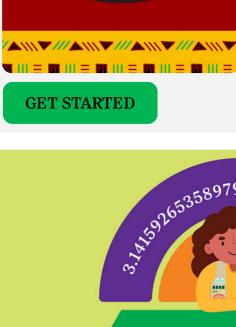

Open Up Their World!

Every year, Girl Scouts and Girl Guides from over 150 countries around the world join together for World Thinking Day. In 2026, we're celebrating 100 years of our most beloved annual tradition.

This year's theme is "Our Friendship." We invite you to explore our worldwide Girl Scouts/Girl Guides community and celebrate the friendships that connect us all around the globe. The good news is, you don't need to wait until February 22 to start earning this award. Girl Scouts can download their FREE activity guides today and begin their journey to making a better future!

Celebrate Black History Month in February!

Black History Month is an annual celebration of achievements and contributions of the African American and Black communities—a time (though not the only time!) for emphasizing the central role of this varied community throughout U.S. history. Explore culture, art, history, and traditions, and discover some of the amazing contributions these communities have made that shaped society as we know it today.

Boost Your Sales with Cookie Business Badges

Does your Girl Scout have big goals this cookie season? The Cookie Business badges can help build business skills in preparation for booth sales and the rest of the season! There is a badge for each year at each Girl Scout level. Cookie sellers are real-life entrepreneurs; they can use the valuable skills they learn from selling cookies throughout their lives to set goals, budget, provide good customer service, and market their business.

Day camp registration opens soon!

Girl Scout day camps are planned and run by dedicated Girl Scout volunteers. Each day camp has its own program and culture, and all camps give girls and volunteers the opportunity to have great Girl Scout experiences. With outdoor activities like fire building, orienteering, knife safety, cooking, and games, there's something for every girl! Day camps typically run for five days, with some camps offering an optional overnight.

Visit www.girlscoutsw.org/daycamp for dates and registration information!
