New Safety Activity Checkpoints are here!

When planning for summer activities or trips, check out the new Safety Activity Checkpoints! This important resource outlines how to keep Girl Scouts safe during meetings, outings, overnights, travel, and high adventure activities, with clear safety standards and activity-specific guidance. Safety Activity Checkpoints should be referenced often—before troop meetings, while planning trips or activities, and whenever questions come up. You don't need to read this document cover to cover. Instead, think of it as a dependable roadmap you can return to throughout the Girl Scout year for guidance, requirements, and inspiration.

Mark a Milestone

On July 4, 2026, the United States will commemorate 250 years since the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Girl Scouts of the USA has partnered with America250.org to recognize this anniversary—and you can earn a special five-patch collection.

You can join an event, take part in a national project, or create your own way to participate. Explore history, discover diverse stories, and give back through service!

Be part of the conversation about our past, present, and future. Ready to start?

True North Girls' Leadership and Sports Day Camp

Girl Scouts of Oregon and SW Washington, in partnership with Elite Sports Academy and She Flies, is excited to announce the first-ever True North Girls' Leadership & Sports Day Camp—a week-long, all-girls experience for girls entering grades 4 through 6, where sports meet self-discovery. Campers will also be inspired by special appearances from women athletes and a mindset coach, bringing leadership to life in powerful, real-world ways. Please share this opportunity with friends and family who may be interested in this day camp!

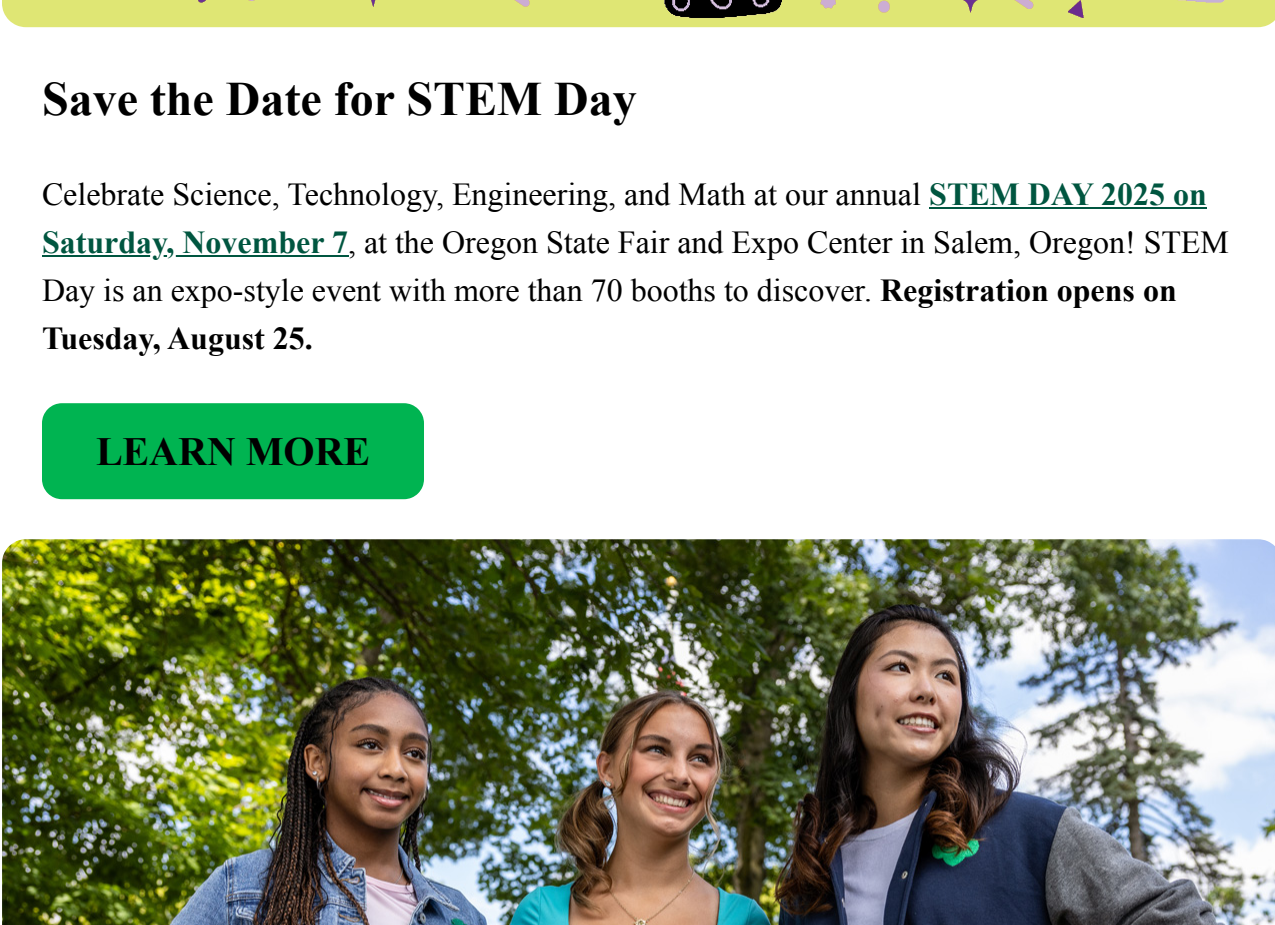

August 3–7, 2026

Bethany, OR

Registration: $425 – financial assistance available!

Financial assistance is available on a first-come, first-served basis and is made possible through the generous support of Sport Oregon Foundation and She Flies, with the goal of ensuring every girl has access to this experience regardless of financial need. Girl Scouts may also choose to pay with program credits.

Some Program Credits Expire in September

Girl Scouts can earn valuable program credits for participating in the Girl Scout Cookie and Fall Product Programs. Program credits can be used for a variety of opportunities, including overnight camp, events, fun merchandise in the GSOSW store, and much more!

While girls have just recently received their credits from the 2026 Cookie season, it is important to remember that these credits do expire a year after they are earned.

All program credits earned from the 2024 Fall Product Program and 2025 Cookie Program will expire September 15, 2026.
