Introducing new Body Appreciation badges!

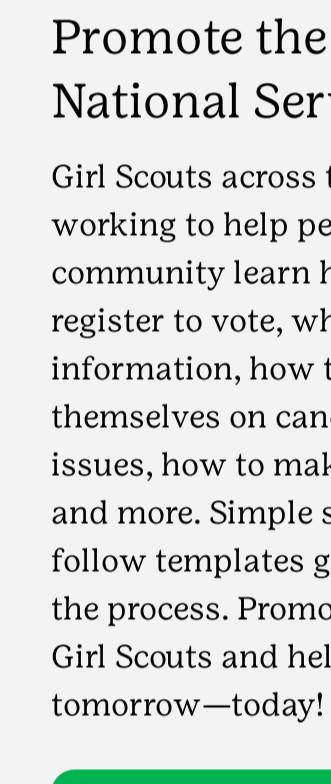

Through the new Body Appreciation badges, Girl Scouts see their bodies in a positive new way. The badges are designed to help girls shift their focus from body image to body function, and transform how they view and think about their bodies. Try a variety of fun, age-appropriate activities to build self-confidence, practice self-care, and start lifelong habits that support both physical and emotional well-being.

- Daisy Fun with Movement: Move your body for fun, including the development of gross and fine motor skills.
- Brownie Me Time: Use your amazing body as a tool to help you feel your best.
- Junior Uniquely Us: Learn to appreciate differences, celebrate similarities, and accept your unique self.
- Cadette Outside the Mirror: Question beauty standards to find and appreciate your authentic self.
- Senior Mind, Body, Me: Support overall well-being.
- Ambassador Cheers for Every Body: Appreciate and celebrate uniqueness in yourself and others.

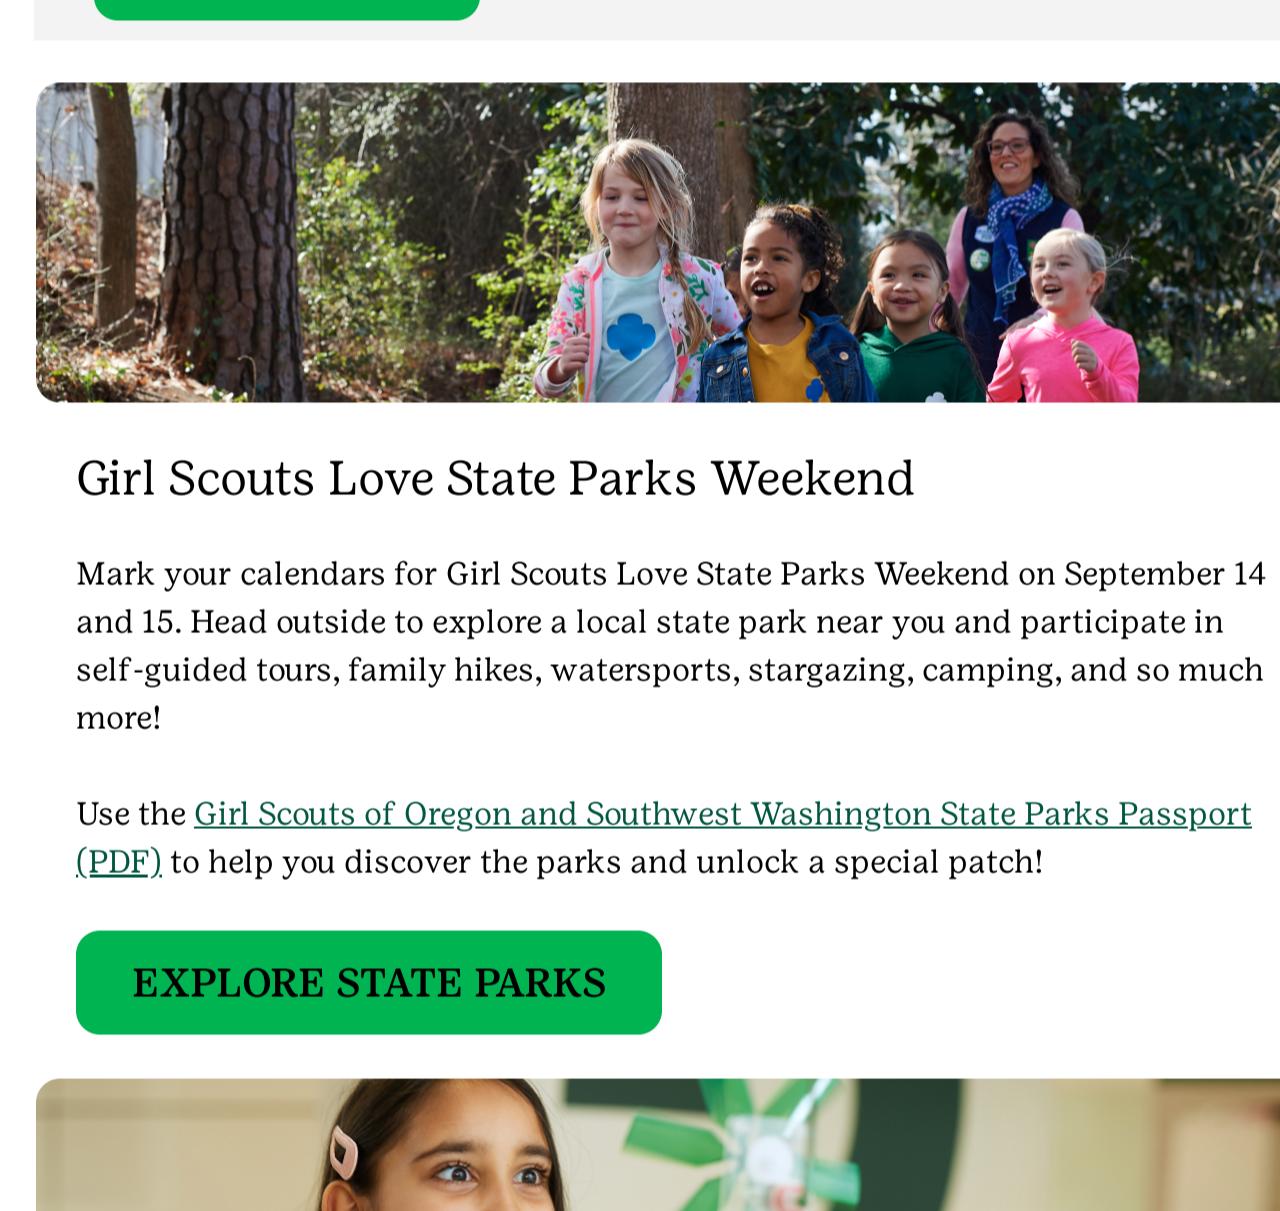

Purchase badge booklets in the Girl Scout Shop, or sign into MyGS to explore meeting plans in the Volunteer Toolkit. Watch the recent KOIN news clip with GSOSW CEO Shannon Evers and Gold Award Girl Scout Thiliga about why these new badges are so important for girls everywhere!
