

2017 Marie Lamfrom Women of Distinction

DJ WILSON

DJ Wilson is president and general manager of the KGW Media Group. DJ's first position in the broadcast industry was at KIRO-TV (CBS) in Seattle in various sales and sales management roles. She was the VP of Sales for KING TV (NBC) and Assistant General Manager at KING TV in Seattle and the President and General Manager of KREM (CBS) and KSKN (CW) in Spokane prior to being transferred to KGW. DJ is currently the Board Chair of the Oregon Association of Broadcasters and the Classic Wines Auction, which benefits five local children's charities. She is the Chair Emeritus of the Portland Business Alliance, is an honorary member of Doernbecher Children's Hospital Foundation Board, and serves on the Executive Committee of SMART (Start Making a Reader Today). She is an at-large member of the Pioneer Courthouse Square board. DJ holds a bachelor's degree in communications from the Edward R. Murrow College of Communications at Washington State University and has completed several master's level classes in Communication Leadership at Gonzaga University.