

Email Opt-In

Why is opting in to Girl Scouts of Oregon and Southwest Washington email important?

Email is the primary way Girl Scouts of Oregon and Southwest Washington communicates with our members. By opting out of receiving our emails, you may miss out on important communication. Our emails not only contain opportunities to further your girl's leadership experience, but also provide tools and tips for caregivers and volunteers that could help you be successful in your role.

How can I see if I'm opted out of email and how do I opt back in?

You can see if you're opted out of our email and opt back in through your My GS account. Here are the steps:

1. Go to our website at girlscoutsw.org and click on Sign In.
2. Enter your username and password. Your user name should be the email associated with your My GS account.
3. Once you're logged in, click on My Profile on the left-hand navigation bar.
4. Scroll down to the bottom of the screen to the Communication preferences section.
5. Verify that the Email Opt In box is checked.
6. Don't forget to click Save!

What do I do if I need help?

As always, if you need help or have any questions, we're here! Just email answers@girlscoutsw.org and we can help you opt back in to receiving our emails.
